HOW TO BEAT ANY VIDEO GAME SINGLE-HANDED.

WITH THE QUICK-SHOT™ JOYSTICK CONTROLLER

MODEL 318-101

Beating any video game is easy, but beating it single handed takes a lot more. It takes a good joystick that is responsive and comfortable. Now with Spectravision's new Quick-Shot™ Joystick Controller, you can do it all single-handed; control and fire at the same time.

One look at the handle and you know you'll have a better grip on your game. It's contour design fits comfortably around your palm. You can play for hours without developing a case of sore thumb. The firepower button on top of the handle gives you that extra margin of

THE WINNING EDGE.

CONTOUR HANDLE AND RAPID FIRE BUTTON

OPTIONAL LEFT HAND FIRE BUTTON

UNIVERSAL JACK & LONG CORD

REMOVABLE SURE FOOT SUCTION CUPS

FOR USE ON THE

- * ATARI 400 & 800 COMPUTER SYSTEMS

speed. (We didn't call it Quick-Shot for nothing.) You also have the option to use the left hand fire button simultaneously. The four removable suction cups hold the entire joystick firmly on any surface. It also comes with a long cord.

With all those superior features in one joystick, you know you got yourself a winning combination. And when it comes to beating video games, one hand is all you need!

Get the Quick-Shot™ now, you'll be that much ahead. After all, winning is what every game is all about.

No. 201

Meet Lefty, Scar face, Mugsy, Shifty and the most sinister and deadly of them all "Nitro-Ed." They're out to challenge you to the most exciting quick-draw shoot-em out game that has ever appeared on the screen. Your assignment is to meet them on their turf—"Gangster Alley." You are equipped with bullet proof vests and a gunsight. Your mission is to outdraw them and collect the monetary rewards before they shoot you. They actually appear out of the windows at random to take shots at you and "Nitro-Ed" sneaks up on the roof top and drops his deadly bomb. Periodically, an innocent citizen hostage appears from the window and if you accidentally hit him, you'll lose points. The shoot out switches from day time to night.
